CANCELLATION POLICY

Time is precious. The time you schedule with me will be all yours. So, show up on time and be present. I will do the same.

The time we squander, we can never get back.

Let's use our time mindfully.

To that end, if you need to cancel, please inform me a full 24 hours before your scheduled appointment, in order to avoid being charged full price.

You may text or leave me a voicemail to cancel your appointment. Email won't be accepted as a form of cancellation.

Please sign your acknowledgment of my cancellation policy.
